

92 counties • county seat ★ state capital (Indianapolis)

This map displays the 92 counties of Indiana, each color-coded and labeled with its name. The counties are arranged in a grid-like pattern, with some variations in shape and size. The colors used for the counties are: yellow, light blue, light green, light orange, light purple, and light pink. The map also shows the state's borders with Illinois to the west, Ohio to the north and east, and Kentucky to the south. Major water bodies, including Lake Michigan and Lake Erie, are shown in light blue. The county names are printed in a sans-serif font, centered within each county. The map is a high-resolution, vector-style illustration.
